WHAT MIGHT BE DONE.

What might be done if men were wise; What glorious deeds my suffering brother,

Would they unite In love and right And cease their scorn of one another.

All slavery, warfare, lies and wrongs, All vice and crime might die together.

And fruit and corn To each man born, Be free as warmth in summer weather.

The meanest wretch that ever trod, The deepest sunk in guilt and sorrow, Might stand erect

In self-respect, And share the teeming world tomorrow.

What might be done? This might be done, And more than this, my suffering brother;

More than the tongue E'er said or sung, If men were wise and loved each other.

—Charles Mackay.

MRS. MARY GREEN.

Her Death Occurred This Morning After a Lingering Illness.

Mrs. Mary Green, whose illness had been frequently mentioned, died this morning at 8 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Molen, on Lee street.

Mrs. Green had been a sufferer from asthma for a period of some fifteen years.

She was about 72 years of age, and her whole life had been spent in this vicinity, where she was well known and highly respected by all.

Mrs. Green was twice married, and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. James Molen and Mrs. William Shepard, and one stepson, Mr. Anthony Beasley.

The hour for the funeral has not been determined, but services will be held at Mrs. Molen's home by the Rev. F. W. Harrop of the M. E. Church, of which denomination Mrs. Green had long been connected.

Interment in the Beasley Burying-ground.

Lovers of good music were more than entertained by the concert at the Christian Church last evening, given by Miss Lida Berry, Prof. Bullett and the Maysville Orchestra. Miss Berry and Prof. Bullett are the acknowledged musicians of the city and their concert was all that could be expected by friends who had heard them on so many previous occasions. That their music is thoroughly appreciated was attested by the many who were present.

The instrumental selections were interspersed by vocal solos by Miss Hays and Dr. F. G. Smoot, and Mr. D. A. Ellis rendered a trombone solo. The numbers given by Prof. Bullett's pupils on the violin showed the excellency of the instruction which they are receiving. It was one of the most enjoyable entertainments ever given in the city.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Bilelessness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by J. C. Pecor.
